

Collocation

Collocation are words that are often used together.

Have:

Have a great / bad time
Have a laugh
Have fun
Have an opportunity

Take:

Take a break
Take an hour's rest
Take it easy

Spend:

Spend your (Waste:free) time
Spend your morning
Spend your pocket money

Waste:

Waste your time
Waste a morning
Waste your energy

Do:

Do abdominal exercise
Do martial arts
Do pilates
Do weight training

Activities:

Do something
Do a hobby

Go:

Go cycling
Go jogging
Go rollerblading
Go skiing

Play:

Play basketball I play basketball with my friends
Play football He play football in the park.

Pay

Pay a fine Pay attention
Pay by credit card My father pay by credit card the school.
Pay cash

Work

Do part-time work
Do school work
Do exercises
Do an exam

Create something

Make a model
Make dinner

Activities

Do something
Do a hobby
Do an english course

Do/makeObtain results

Make an impact
Make a difference

Set phrases

Do someone a favour
Do your best

Set phrases

Make money
Make a suggestion

do some cleaning/ an English course/ someone a favour/ your best / a part-time job/make a decision / a choice / money / an announcement / an impact / the garden/ a commitment / a visit

The causative with make make + object + infinitive Art can make you think

make + object + adjective

Her drawings make me nervous